

NORTHWEST WORKFORCE PARTNERS FORUM 2011

“JOBZ” 2011

“Addressing our needs for tomorrow by planning today.”

The Northwest Workforce Partners Forum 2011 will bring together industry, unions, Aboriginal human resource practitioners, First Nations leaders, training institutions and government and provide a venue for an exchange of ideas to assist Aboriginal citizens to acquire the right skills and safety certification identified by merging opportunities in new labour market sectors in the Northwest.

NORTHWEST WORKFORCE PARTNERS FORUM 2011

Monday, December 5, 2011

8:30am to 4:00pm

Kitsumkalum Community Hall
(3514 West Kalum Road • Terrace, BC)

AUDIENCE: Leadership & Practitioners

The day consists of panels of industry representatives speaking to an audience of Aboriginal employment/training/social development professionals, urban training/employment organizations, and leadership about their current and future labour needs. The panel presentations will be on natural resources, transportation, energy and services sectors.

“JOBZ” 2011

Tuesday, December 6, 2011

10:00am to 3:00pm

Kitsumkalum Community Hall
(3514 West Kalum Road • Terrace, BC)

AUDIENCE:
Job Seekers, Leadership & Practitioners

The day will feature “JOBZ”, an exciting Career/Trade fair to link industry to job seekers! Job seekers will get to meet one on one with employers and industry representatives, learn about the current and future job opportunities and get help with their resume if required.

Transportation will be provided for those job seekers living in communities outside of Terrace attending “JOBZ” 2011 on December 6, 2011 (Smithers, Prince Rupert, the Nass Valley, & Haida Gwaii). A continental breakfast & lunch will be provided.
